The text in the box is:

The importance of vocational education is that it provides an alternative to the traditional method. Vocational education is also known as technical education. It enables a student to select a career in specific skill. The vocational education program plays a role in preparing students by providing opportunities to learn and practice skills required for a particular job or occupation. Without technical skill one nation can't stand in this modern world. It becomes the need of every nation. Vocational education prepares people's for work and develop citizens skills to remain employable of the economy.
